REFERENCES:

In order to complete the application, please find three people who can vouch for your responsibility, faith, experience, and character. Your pastor/church leader should be one of these; the other two references must not be family. Each one must fill out a character reference, which must be mailed directly to the camp once completed. These references are meant to help us to better know you and your capabilities. We need to receive these references if you wish to be considered to work at OFCR.

TESTIMONY:

In order to complete the application, please attach a copy of your testimony. This should describe when you turned from your sins to Christ for salvation and your ongoing relationship with Jesus Christ. The testimony could be broken into three sections: before Christ, how you were saved, and what Christ has been doing in your life since.
